

Dear Grandmaster Kim-

I am a former student of yours. I apologize for not sending this sooner.

I want to thank you for saving my life on three occasions. The first two were when a dangerously mentally ill man started stalking me (he saw me at school). He attempted to attack me on campus, and thanks to your training I was able to center my chi quickly. Like a feral animal, he sensed my strength & ran away!

The second time, the same man came running at me in a rage & attempted to hit me. This man was large & incredibly strong, but your training of blocks saved me, & your training of focus kept me clear-headed.

The third time was when I fell off of a two-story height to an uneven concrete ground. Your training of falls kept me from certain great injury.

Grandmaster Kim--the fourth life-saving thing you have done for me is my appreciation of a lifestyle of Cha Yon Kyu. Thank You!
Fondly, Ronda Dardin
